

FREEDOM OF SPEECH

The UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA IRVINE recognizes the rights of individuals to engage in constitutionally protected free speech and public assembly.

The UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA POLICE DEPARTMENT also recognizes its responsibility to protect the rights of persons who choose to engage in such activity in a REASONABLE manner.

Persons who choose to exercise their freedom of speech or right to public assembly should understand that such rights are not unlimited.

When the activity infringes on the rights of others, the activity loses constitutional protection and may become a violation of law or University policy.

Several state codes have been recognized by the courts as constitutional in this regard. The courts have also recognized the right of the University to establish rules and regulations governing the time, place and manner for the exercise of free speech and public assembly.

These codes and rules and regulations of the University will be enforced by the UNIVERSITY POLICE DEPARTMENT, as necessary, and are reproduced inside, in part, for your information.

For additional information, please call the University of California Police Department at (949) 824-5223, or Dean of Students Office at (949) 824-5590

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, IRVINE POLICIES, RULES AND REGULATIONS

PRINCIPLES OF COMMUNITY

Tolerance, civility and mutual respect for diversity of background, gender, ethnicity, race, and religion is a crucial within our campus community as is tolerance civility and mutual respect for diversity of political beliefs, sexual orientation, and physical abilities.

USE OF FIGHTING WORDS PROHIBITED

“Fighting words” are those personally abusive epithets which, when directly addressed to the ordinary citizens, are, in the context used, as a matter of common knowledge, inherently likely to provoke a violent reaction. Such words includes those terms widely recognized to victimize or stigmatize individuals on the basis or race, ethnicity, religion, sex, sexual orientation and other characteristics associated with past and continuing discrimination.

TIME, PLACE, AND MANNER REGULATIONS

Orderly behavior and the normal conduct of University affairs shall govern time, place, and manner of exercising free speech and advocacy. Regard for the privacy of others shall be observed, and reasonable precautions shall be taken against practices which would make persons on campus involuntary audiences.

AREAS FOR PUBLIC GATHERINGS

Specific areas and properties available for public meeting and gatherings must be reserved through the appropriate scheduling office on a first-come, first-served basis.

AMPLIFICATION

Amplification may be used only at specific times in connection with the reservation of specific areas and properties and is prohibited at all other times and places.

NON-UNIVERSITY SPEAKERS

Non-University persons are permitted to speak in areas of the campus open to the public generally without invitation; however, because such areas are limited, a reservation is required from the appropriate scheduling office.
