CANRA/MANDATED REPORTERS

California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act (CANRA) requires employers, including the University, to identify Mandated Reporters (Individuals who are required to report observed or suspected child abuse, assault or neglect to specified authorities). Mandated Reporters are employees who, by virtue of their position, activities, licensure or profession, are required under CANRA to report child abuse to specified authorities.

Employees identified as Mandated Reporters at UCI include:

- UC Irvine Medical Center employees
- Licensed health care professionals
- Employees who work in youth camps, K-12 and youth outreach programs
- All employees in the following units/departments: Campus Police Dept., Athletics, Child Care Center Wellness, Health & Counseling Services
- Other employees and administrators who have contact with children on a regular basis and employees as identified by the campus and/or the employee's department

CLERY ACT (1990)

To ensure students, prospective students, parents and employees have access to accurate information about crimes committed on campus and campus security procedures.

Failure to comply results in penalties, fines, and loss of financial aid for UCI. As of 2024, a fine can be up to $69,733 per violation.
